The Arc of North Central Virginia
GROWING TO MEET COMMUNITY NEEDS

February 2019, WARRENTON, VA - The Arc of North Central Virginia (NCV) is pleased to announce that Marilyn McCombe has assumed the newly created position of executive director, after serving for seven years as president of its volunteer board of directors. According to new Board President Amy Hunter, “Ms. McCombe’s expertise will greatly expand The Arc of NCV’s capacity to serve people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) and their families in our area.”

The Arc of NCV meets in the new PATH Foundation offices on Walker Drive in Warrenton. Access to use of this new facility, with its the state-of-the-art conference rooms, has been pivotal to development of the organization. “We are extremely fortunate to be part of such a supportive community; the Partnership for Community Resources (PCR) and the PATH Foundation have been instrumental in our growth and effectiveness in supporting families,” said McCombe.

The Arc of NCV is a local non-profit serving people with I/DD and their families in Culpeper, Fauquier, Madison, Orange and Rappahannock counties. Services include direct consultations with families, hosting informational and social events, and collaborating with local public and private organizations to build awareness and understanding of supports for people with I/DD. Founded in 2010, The Arc of NCV is one of 23 local chapters of The Arc of Virginia, and is an affiliate of The Arc of the United States, the world’s largest community-based organization of, and for, people with I/DD and their families.
